Rank	2/23
Task 3 - Preliminary Course Examination (40%)	High
Rank	6/23

Teacher Comment

Charlotte is a very capable student who has developed an impressive understanding of the chemical concepts covered in the Preliminary Course. She displays an interest in the subject and learns new ideas quickly. Charlotte has demonstrated she can apply her knowledge and understanding to new situations and her skills are developing well. She is encouraged to further increase her breadth of knowledge and depth of understanding by reading widely on each of the topics, making detailed summaries of her work and revising on a regular basis. Charlotte has developed a very solid foundation upon which to build during the Higher School Certificate course and has the potential to achieve at a very high level in Chemistry.

Task 2 - Narratives That Shape Our World (35%)	Excellent
Rank	17/73
Task 3 - Preliminary Examination - Critical Study of Text (30%)	High
Rank	24/72

Teacher Comment

Charlotte has worked diligently in English this year, developing her ability to critically analyse texts and articulate complex ideas with clarity. Her study of the unit Narratives that Shape our World was conceptually strong, clearly showing the effects of context, purpose and audience on shaping meaning in texts. Charlotte's critical writing skills are developing well. She is able to establish a strong thesis at the outset and support her ideas with sustained textual examples. In our study of Shakespeare's play 'Julius Caesar', Charlotte's analysis of the text was strong in terms of discussing authorial purpose and the influence of context on the representation of key values and ideas. Her textual intervention was engaging, but required a closer focus on the question.

Teacher Comment

Charlotte has consistently performed to an exceptional standard in Mathematics Extension 1. She demonstrates a thorough mastery of all concepts and processes encountered in the course, and has shown a capacity to interpret, analyse and solve complex problems. With continued application and regular revision, Charlotte should experience increasing confidence and developing capability for higher order problem solving techniques.

Teacher Comment

Diligent and conscientious, Charlotte has approached her music studies with maturity. This has translated in to high level responses in all four components of the music course; aural, composition, musicology and performance. She displays a comprehensive understanding of the concepts of music and is able to apply this to both her performances and compositions. As we head towards the Higher School Certificate she is encouraged to maintain this balance across all the components.

Charlotte has developed an impressive understanding of the concepts involved in Physics. She displays a real interest in the subject and learns new ideas quickly. Charlotte has demonstrated she can apply her knowledge to new situations as they are presented. She displays competent practical skills and her reports are well written. To maintain her momentum and maximise her potential in Physics, Charlotte is encouraged to construct a planned revision program that includes the creation of summaries of syllabus dot points, revising work done in class each day and practising questions from her text book.

Teacher Comment

This semester students have undertaken depth studies into the World Religions of Buddhism and Islam. Charlotte has displayed a highly developed understanding of the concepts and beliefs that exist within these religions and has a considerable level of ability in regard to articulating these in her assessments. Charlotte is encouraged to contribute more to class discussions and actively engage with all class activities. She is also encouraged to seek constant feedback from her teacher and engage with additional research in order to extend her responses further and reach her full potential, especially moving into the Higher School Certificate course.

House Comment

Charlotte has a warm and outgoing nature, a ready smile and a fine sense of humour. She treats all others with compassion and respect and her thoughtfulness has resulted in her being held in high regard by teachers and fellow students alike in our House Family. Charlotte has been a diligent and focused student who is a valued member of the Stage and Concert bands and represented Central Coast Grammar School in the 1st Hockey team. Charlotte is to be congratulated on her well-deserved appointment as Prefect.

Head of School Comment

This report provides a summary of achievements to date as students begin their Higher School Certificate curriculum. It should be read with two things in mind. Firstly, students and parents should note the work ethic as indicated in the Learning Profile and whether Charlotte has applied consistent effort and diligence throughout every subject. Diligence certainly forms the foundation from which strong study habits can flourish to assist Charlotte to maximise her potential and to achieve her academic goals. Secondly, each subject's achievement standard is significant information for future planning. Students and parents are reminded that it is not too late to reflect on current practice and seek help or refinement of new strategies. For Charlotte, it seems that she is not only on track with a wonderful work ethic but is well positioned to progress confidently into her next stage of study. All students are reminded that throughout their final year of schooling they should seek a healthy balance of cocurricular, social and academic activities and to remember to support each other. I congratulate Charlotte on her excellent academic achievements that she has earned across all subjects! She has demonstrated a high level of commitment to a range of cocurricular opportunities. As a newly inducted School Prefect, Charlotte has already demonstrated maturity and initiative and I look forward to a rewarding year ahead.

Year 11 Preliminary Academic Report Guide

Central Coast Grammar School reports on a variety of student development and assessment results. This guide is provided to help you to interpret the information provided in this academic report. Should you have any queries regarding this information please do not hesitate to contact the school. The best person to contact in the first instance is either the subject teacher or the Head of that Department. Each subject contains four sections:

- Personal Work Ethic
- Overall Rank
- Assessment Task Standard and Rank
- Teacher Comment

The Semester 2 reports compile the standard and rank achieved for each of the assessment tasks throughout the Preliminary course. You will note that the tasks from Semester 1 appear on this report.

Personal Learning Profile

The Personal Learning Profile shows the student's approach to their own learning. This profile is valuable for monitoring the learning process. Effective study skills and work habits support long term memory and a deeper understanding of the course content as a student progresses through their years of schooling. The result is based on the teacher's observations and professional judgement. The scale used in this profile is:

- Exemplary
- Improvement Required
- Consistently Good
- Significant Concern

Overall Rank

The Overall Rank for each subject describes the student's standing in relation to the subject's cohort after all assessment task results have been combined in accordance to the specified weightings as outlined in the Assessment Guidelines.

Areas of Assessment

Standard of Achievement

Each assessment task is assessed using the standards of achievement listed below:

- Excellent
- Basic
- High
- Limited
- Sound
- Unsatisfactory

Assessment Task Rank

The student's rank for individual tasks in relation to the cohort studying the subject at the time of the task is listed.

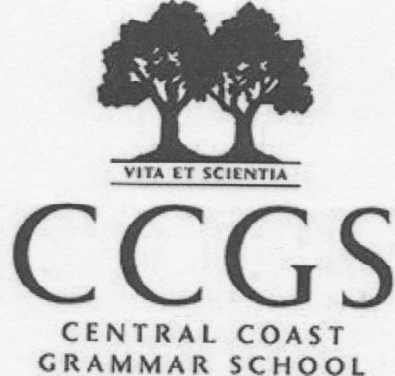

Teacher Comment

Teacher's comments are written by the class teacher. These comments give a general statement that highlights strengths and includes possible strategies for enhancing the student's learning.

Student Profile

The student profile summarises the student's commitment to the School Community by listing their involvement in House and Cocurricular activities. Student attendance records are also stated. Any unexplained absences should be addressed by submitting a written explanation signed by a parent/guardian.

Please do not hesitate to contact your child's House Coordinator or the Head of the Department should you have any questions regarding your child's report.

House Comment

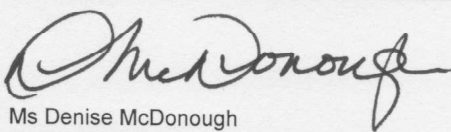

Charlotte's contribution to our House Family cannot be understated. She is always inclusive and friendly and demonstrates outstanding leadership as a senior student role model, especially to our junior girls. Charlotte's respectful behaviour also highlights her values and good judgement. Her dedication and loyalty to her House, Nicholii, is admirable and this has had a lasting effect on both her House Family teachers and all members who certainly look to Charlotte for her leadership as the only Year 12 student in our House for 2019. Charlotte's commitment to House and School initiatives and all things cocurricular is vast to say the least and deserves great praise! These including sport where she represented her House in all House Carnivals, and her dedication to Senior Hockey. Charlotte have also been active in the Performing Arts though music being part of the Senior Concert Band and the Stage Band. We will miss Charlotte and wish her all the success and happiness as she leaves Central Coast Grammar School.
