YEAR 12

SEMESTER 2, 2022 REPORT

Colebrook House, Tutor Group CK4

SUBJECT	Place in Course	No in Course	Effort	Grade	Comments
Christian Studies 12CS7B-1 Mr E J Craig	9	217	1	A	William has worked consistently well both in the classroom and in his assessments. In Semester 2, he engaged with a range of ethical frameworks and explored how the Christian faith interrelates with each one in a meaningful manner. I encourage William to continue thinking deeply about his faith and what it may mean for him as he moves on from Shore into the next stage of life.
Chemistry 12CH6-1 Mr M Webster	1	43	1	A	William is a very capable Chemistry student with an inquisitive mind. He has worked all year diligently and deserves his high ranking. His content knowledge is excellent, and his examination technique is sound. Leading up to the external examination, he should concentrate his energies on analysing his responses to sample papers and comparing these to official marking guidelines. I wish William well for his future studies and hope he creates a path that he finds both fulfilling and challenging.
Design & Technology 12DT5-1 Mr M J Prowle	1	13	1	A	William has combined a high level of creative thinking with practical skills to produce an excellent product. William's strong understanding of design theory and practice has been shown in all assessment tasks and is reflected in the excellent results he has achieved. He has learned a wide variety of new practical skills and processes and used these to excellent effect in the production of his project. William's genuine and enthusiastic personality has been a valued part of the class. His talent for self-motivation and his personal organisation have been central to his success. I wish him every success in his pursuits next year.
English Advanced 12ENA5 Mr N J Penn	36	99	1	A	William has made a valuable contribution in class this semester. He is a dedicated and hardworking student who always seeks feedback in order to improve his performance. He has demonstrated a highly developed understanding of the course. William's performance in the Trial HSC Examination was very pleasing and reflected a thorough preparation. He will need to continue developing the strength of his written compositions in Module C particularly ensuring he addresses the stimulus if required. It is also important that William practise writing under examination conditions. William has been a pleasure to teach these past years and I wish him well.
Mathematics Ext 2 12ME2-1 Mr J A Styles	6	19	1	A	Mathematics Extension 1: Grade A, Rank 5/77. William has been enthusiastic and conscientious throughout the course and is driven to do his best. He always strives to ensure he understands each homework question, and this diligence has led to him achieving very pleasing results. William now needs to do examples corresponding to every outcome in the syllabus and complete and learn from as many past papers as possible to give himself the best chance at achieving the top grade. I have enjoyed teaching William and wish him every success in the future.
Physics 12PH4-1 Mr R J Ward	7	46	1	A	Despite losing a little ground on his nearest rivals, William can be proud of his efforts in Semester 2. He is a hard worker and prepares thoroughly and there is not much he should change leading into the HSC Examination. He has a good grasp of the basics. Lots of practice questions will be the best way for him to revise so that he can get used to different ways in which questions can be framed and work on applying what he knows in new ways. William has been a great character and a positive influence in class. He has been a pleasure to teach and I wish him all the best over the coming months.

CO-CURRICULAR AND PASTORAL COMMENTS

OTHER COMMENTS (where applicable):

Buru Immersion:

William had the opportunity to participate in the Cape York Indigenous Immersion (Buru Immersion) in June/July this year. Being part of the Immersion allowed him to develop his cultural knowledge of aboriginal issues firsthand. It also allowed him to develop leadership and teamwork skills and participate in community-building projects to help the local communities.

Mr M B Massey

William is an engaging student who has developed a strong rapport with all Tutor Group boys. As a leader of Colebrook House, he has approached his role with significant maturity and sincerity. I applaud his enthusiasm and his willingness to be open to others, as this is a great way to inspire others around him. I wish William the best for the HSC and his time after Shore.

Mr B J Winters

Tutor

William has shown significant growth in his maturity over his Secondary School years. In his role as House Captain, he lead by example, with enthusiasm and through organising activities and guiding younger students. As a Prefect he was always diligent in his duties as he sought to uphold the School's name and encourage students to respect the School's values. William engaged in a multitude of co-curricular activities and still developed his efforts and understanding of each academic subject. He should be proud of his performance, efforts and Grades. I am thankful for his willingness to serve Colebrook House and the Shore community. His sense of humour, his ability to have fun but still show wisdom and appropriateness across situations is admirable. I know William will achieve many great things in his future and I look forward to hearing of his successes.
