

Jeremy W Denniss

SEMESTER 2, 2018 REPORT

YEAR 12, TUTOR GROUP BL2

SUBJECT	Place in Course	No in Course	Effort	Grade	Comments
Christian Studies 12CS3B-2 Ms R Pickering	61	196	1	A	Jeremy has completed the Christian Studies course with perceptive engagement. In exploring ethical decision making, he has understood how values inform actions, particularly in Just War Theory. He demonstrates an increasingly sophisticated insight into philosophical paradigms and living out genuine Christian faith in the modern world. Jeremy's sincerity and diligence have contributed greatly to our class. I am sure he will continue to develop, enriching the lives both of himself and others.
Biology 12BIO4-1 Ms B H Doran	2	31	1	A	Jeremy has worked incredibly hard to achieve this outstanding rank in the Biology cohort this year. His result in the Trial HSC Examination paper was excellent and his responses showed his continuing improvement in attention to detail and accuracy. Given that he has a solid understanding of the course content, I encourage Jeremy to attempt past papers from as many sources as he can to expose himself to questions that are a little more left of field. This will help him to confidently answer 'atypical' questions in the final paper. Jeremy has been an absolute pleasure to teach and I wish him every success for his HSC and beyond.
Economics 12EC5-1 Mr M J Wells	18	41	2	A	Jeremy is capable of Band 6 standard results but consistency across all sections of the HSC Examination is required. There is no doubt Jeremy can execute quality extended responses but only when he is confident with the question. To address the 'soft' sections that Jeremy attempted in the Trial HSC he needs to comprehensively and methodically work through all the 'skills' and 'issues' contained in the syllabus. A top twenty final course ranking is impressive but I suspect we have yet to see the best that Jeremy can achieve.
English Advanced 12ENA2 Mrs J L Melville	48	97	1	B	Jeremy has been working diligently to improve his grades throughout the semester. His results in the recent Trial HSC Examinations were pleasing and showed improvements in each section. Jeremy contributes insightfully to discussions and uses class time wisely. He has regularly submitted compositions for feedback and has applied this feedback readily. Jeremy's creative writing has improved significantly. He needs to continue refining it for different questions and stimulus. He is encouraged to continue completing practice papers under timed conditions, to enhance his examination performance further.
Geography 12G6-1 Ms J Wickenden	1	80	1	A	The countless practice papers, rigorous study note revisions and tireless effort has seen Jeremy achieve a brilliant result in Geography. I am very proud of his results and applaud his determination. Jeremy has always been a sound contributor to classroom discussion and readily shares his knowledge in discussion with others. He is highly respected within this group for the effort he gives to set tasks as well as the optional extra work. It has been a great pleasure working with Jeremy in the classroom over the last two years and I eagerly await news of his final HSC Geography Examination results. It has been a stellar year for him.
Mathematics Ext 1 12ME1-2 Mr M B Massey	46	58	1	A	2 Unit: Grade A, Rank 21/87. Jeremy has exhibited a sound understanding of content taught throughout the course and this has been reflected in most of his assessment results. His recent Trial Examination result was pleasing but I am confident he will produce an even better effort in his HSC Examination. Jeremy's syllabus knowledge is good so he needs to practise past papers and give them to me to mark and provide feedback. His focus should be on applying his knowledge to answering Motion and Binomial Theorem style questions better. Jeremy has been a pleasure to teach.

CO-CURRICULAR AND PASTORAL COMMENTS

OTHER COMMENTS (where applicable):

Library Assistants:

Jeremy has been an exemplary leader in his final year of school. He has been punctual in turning up to his service sessions. He has demonstrated leadership qualities and the ability to fulfil his service requirements at the desk carrying out circulations functions and 'on the floor' shelving and shelf checking the collection. In his previous two years of student librarianship Jeremy was also an outstanding contributor to the service and his quiet confidence will be much missed. We wish him all the best for his future.

Ms A E Banerjee

Football 2nd XI:

Jeremy made some developments in his skill, positioning and tactical awareness throughout the season. He always put in his best and showed great toughness in his play as a defender. His decision making and execution when on the ball is an area of improvement. I wish him well for his future involvement in the game.

Mr T P Sowden

Football 3rd XI:

Jeremy was consistent and always ready to take on the opposition's attacking line. He often confounded them with his strength and his team relied heavily on him to put them back into attack. Jeremy did this with ease, as he was a highly skilled player. He always displayed fine sportsmanship and commitment. His improvement in his skill and the relentless effort that he gave in whatever role he was given made him among the most valuable players in the 3rd Football Team.

Mr N C Beck

Jeremy is an exceptional young man who led Burrell House in an admirable manner. Both his peer group and the wider community hold a lot of respect for Jeremy and I personally thank him for his efforts within the BL2 Tutor Group. Jeremy has forged some very strong friendships throughout his time at Shore and I am positive that he will continue these into his future, whatever it may hold. I would like to congratulate Jeremy on his academic performance across all subjects, but in particularly Geography where he finished with a first place ranking. I know Jeremy will achieve whatever he sets his mind to and I wish him nothing but success for his future endeavours.

Mr K Wallace

Tutor

Jeremy has been a leader that always ensured his actions were much louder than his words in Burrell House. In a situation where others might shy away from the real grunt work required, Jeremy can be reliably counted on to roll up his sleeves and get started. Not yet done, he has one final academic challenge set down by Mr Wells and I wish him well as he works towards his HSC Examinations. With his faultless work ethic and his genuine compassion for others there is no doubt Jeremy is headed for lofty heights beyond Shore. Such exciting adventures await. He carries with him the very best wishes from all of Burrell House and our heartfelt thanks for the time he has invested in building genuine relationships between the boys.

Ms J Wickenden

Jeremy has been an outstanding student who has been involved with a full range of activities. He is a kind and compassionate person and this generosity of character will bring him joy and happiness to others. A fine young man! Proverbs 4 : 20 - 27.
