

SACE Stage 2 Student Report

Umaima Patni

Class : 12CW

Term 3 2019

Subject	Grade (A+ to E-)	Comment
12 Chemistry S Eustace	A-	Umaima's draft of the Science as a Human Endeavour task on the topic of the Hydrogen Economy showed great promise. Here she logically explored in some depth the interaction between science and society. In her trial examination paper, Umaima demonstrated deep and broad knowledge and understanding of a range of chemical concepts and applied these highly effectively in new and familiar contexts. Two further summative tests remain in which I hope that Umaima is again able to show her true capabilities.
12 English Literary Studies R Triantafylakis	B+	Umaima has displayed perseverance, diligence and enthusiasm in English Literary Studies this year. She has submitted drafts and sought feedback to continue to improve. She should be proud of her efforts this year and the growth in text analysis skills she has displayed. Her work this year is commendable and shows that she is prepared for the examination.
12 Mathematical Methods N Romanelli	A+	Umaima has shown continued improvement in her ability to apply her strong mathematical skills to solve problems that have become increasingly complex as the year has progressed. She has an inquisitive mind and is keen to ask questions to deepen her understanding of new concepts. This has enabled Umaima to achieve excellent results in assessment tasks.
12 Physics P Arman	A+	Umaima has demonstrated an excellent understanding of the concepts covered in Physics this year. She works enthusiastically and diligently in class and is always willing to seek clarification in areas that she has not fully understood. Maintaining her consistent application and hard work with the remaining assessment tasks could ensure she will be well positioned for the end of year examination.

Subject	Grade (A+ to E-)	Comment
12 Religious Education C Simpson, N Romanelli	N/A	In the Mercy in Action unit, students discussed and reflected on the work of the Sisters of Mercy, the history of St Aloysius College and Mercy values. They visited Catherine House, a support facility set up by the Sisters of Mercy and discussed ways they can continue to support Mercy works post school. In the Living Faith Today unit, students reflected on their own faith and shared their reflections with their peers.
12 Specialist Mathematics N Romanelli	A	Umaima's excellent mathematical skills have enabled her to find efficient solutions to complex problems presented in class. She has confidently applied her knowledge to all aspects of the Specialist Mathematics course, achieving outstanding results in her assessment tasks.

12 Research Project J Furfari	A	N/A	Umaima is to be commended on her dedicated work ethic. Her Folio demonstrated thorough and highly resourceful development of her research. Umaima's Outcome was a written analysis and creation of a piece of concept art contained an insightful and thorough substantiation of her key findings. The Evaluation, which forms 30% of the final grade, will be externally assessed by the SACE Board.

Umaima Patni

Class : 11SE

Term 4 2018

Subject	Semester 2 A+-E-	Exam A+-E-	Comment
11 Biology S Bowker	A-	A-	Umaima has demonstrated detailed knowledge and understanding of ecology. She completed a well-researched essay on keystone species where she made highly relevant links to human impacts on species survival. Umaima achieved an excellent result in the end of semester exam.
11 Chemistry C Eaton	B+	A	Umaima produced a balanced performance in this subject this semester. Her test and exam results indicate she has achieved a sound grasp of the core concepts presented and she was able to use her knowledge to suggest solutions to unseen problems. Umaima also completed design and deconstruction tasks to a good standard.
11 English E Heuzenroeder	A-	A	Umaima's work has been of a high standard and she has demonstrated a strong understanding of the texts studied in English this semester. Her analytical skills are well-developed and she uses appropriate textual evidence to support her ideas. Umaima's writing occasionally lacks fluency, so I encourage her to ensure that she seeks feedback on her work before submitting good copies.
11 Mathematical Methods N O'Halloran	A+	A+	Umaima is a very capable student who applied herself to a high standard throughout the semester. She displayed effective selection and application of mathematical techniques to find efficient and accurate solutions to routine and complex problems in a variety of contexts. Umaima's success in the exam reflected sound revision techniques.
11 Physics P Arman	A	A	Umaima has made an extraordinary effort throughout the semester to participate in the subject and attempt to improve her test performance. Her focus and willingness to understand what was being taught during each lesson was impressive. Umaima's practical assignment work was excellent and submitted in a timely fashion.
11 Religion Studies M Fragnito	A	N/A	Umaima has been an excellent contributor in Religion Studies. Her written responses consistently demonstrate depth and reflection while her oral contributions reflect genuine compassion and a deep understanding of social justice issues.
