Explanatory Notes

The information contained in this report is a summary of your child's achievement, attitude, behaviour and effort. Formal reports are provided twice a year at the end of each school semester. This report is one of a number of strategies used by the school to communicate to you about your child's progress.

Course Unit Results

The Western Australian Certificate of Education (WACE) Course units are semester or year length.

- Grades represent student achievement in relation to the difficulty of the unit.
- Marks (if included) for each Course unit will be a unit mark out of 100.

Vocational Education and Training (VET) Qualifications

VET qualifications are for students wishing to participate in nationally recognised training. Qualifications contribute to the WACE as unit equivalents.

Competency results may be final or progress towards future completion. Final results may be subject to external verification.

Endorsed Programs

Endorsed programs provide access to areas of learning not covered by WACE courses or VET programs. They are delivered in a variety of settings by schools, workplaces, universities and community organisations. These programs contribute to the WACE as unit equivalents.

Students are awarded a result that indicates the level of achievement within the context of the program.

Grades

Grades can be interpreted as follows:

- A - Excellent achievement
- B - High achievement
- C - Satisfactory achievement
- D - Limited achievement
- E - Unsatisfactory achievement
- U - Requirements not completed

Avanish is a conscientious and diligent student and he has maintained an excellent standard of achievement in the topic tests during the semester throughout the semester. Avanish will need to closely look at his Semester 1 examination paper and identify and revise those areas of the course he did not do well in order to improve his grade.

Avanish has shown a great deal of talent in this subject by demonstrating excellent practical application of course content. He has produced very high quality class work. Avanish's approach to his schoolwork is very mature and diligent. He needs to be commended for his excellent examination result putting him in the top ten in the class. However, there is still room for improvement next semester.

Avanish has had an impressive semester in Year 12 Literature. He has gained focus and clarity in his writing, which shows great growth from Year 11 when his intelligent ideas were often lost in unclear expression. He earned near top-marks on the Close Reading section of the examination. This shows his ability to analyse an unseen text under timed conditions. As we head into Term 3, we will complete our study of the novel "Eva Luna" and then revisit the poetry of Samuel Wagan Watson. I really enjoy being Avanish's teacher because his quiet manner allows him to think deeply and to notice what others may miss.

Avanish has applied himself to capacity in Mathematics Methods throughout the semester, and this has seen him achieve to a high standard. He has demonstrated a dedicated approach to his studies. His examination and test results have been very pleasing, showing that his revision methods are very successful for him. Avanish is very quick to pick up concepts, and to apply these to questions. He will need to maintain this hard working approach throughout Semester 2, to continue to achieve the results he has so far.

Avanish is a quiet and diligent member of the class who is making very good progress in this course. His test results have generally been above average and his exam mark was significantly higher, suggesting some good revision was done in preparation. Avanish must continue with a methodical and consistent study program for the remainder of the year in order to consolidate his learning and become more confident in applying his skills in various contexts. With a dedicated and focused approach, I am confident he can complete the course with fine results.

Avanish is an excellent student whose motivated approach has yielded excellent results this semester. Although he was disappointed with his semester one examination performance I feel he has the ability to improve on this. To maintain or improve this standard throughout the rest of the year he should continue with his study routine and supplement this with plenty of past exam practice questions.

During Advocacy this semester, students have been exposed to a number of guest speakers, who have provided information about scholarships available, and the study opportunities at various local and interstate universities. They have also been exposed to several inspirational speakers, as well as being given further evidence about the serious issues surrounding cybersafety. In the last few weeks of term students have been involved in "Write Beyond" workshops. Students were provided with their ATAR predictors, and have made great strides in facing the challenges of year 12 study.

Avanish is a pleasant student and has attained good results this year. In order to improve on these results in Year 12 by gaining a comprehensive understanding of all aspects of the course, he will need to implement a consistent study routine from the start of the year. This will be particularly important to improve his end of year exam performance.

Avanish is a pleasant and very polite student who has shown a high level of preparation and organisation in practical sessions of the course and assessment presentation. He maintains all his class work to a high standard. Avanish attitude to his school commitments is very positive and mature. His oral presentation and participation in class discussion were very constructive and productive. However, he has the potential to attain greater marks and grades if he improves his time management skills.

Avanish has had a good year in Literature. He is an incredibly creative thinker and he can make connections between seemingly disparate texts and themes. At times, the creative links benefit his essays and at other times they are distracting. His in-class reading and analysis of the poetry of Samuel Wagan Watson was one of the best in the class, and it is this level and style of writing that positions him for success in Year 12. Over the summer, Avanish should read the course texts and track the patterns of generic conventions and ideas explored while making connections to the texts and concepts studied in Year 11. He can also read beyond the course syllabus by reading other texts from studied authors or by reading texts that share the time period or genre.										Attitude, Behaviour and Effort	Participates fully	✓

Avanish has had a reasonable year in Physics however he must realise that generally speaking the year 12 course is conceptually more difficult and content wise more compact. I would suggest he does some preparation and pre-reading before we commence next year. He should also look to his study program to ensure he stays on top of the day to day work and also allows time for revision on a regular basis.
